

Marsha

Originally from the Midwest United States, Marsha holds an advertising degree from Michigan State University and has repeatedly been drawn to travel and living in foreign countries such as Spain, England, Germany, and now Costa Rica. She currently is a travel agent in Costa Rica and has lived there for the past three years. She speaks fluent Spanish and soon will become officially "half Costa Rican" when she and Jonathan marry!! She first came in contact with Tom while living in the Lake Tahoe, CA area from 1999 to 2003 through the Squaw Valley Chapel.
